Murder Mystery Dinner

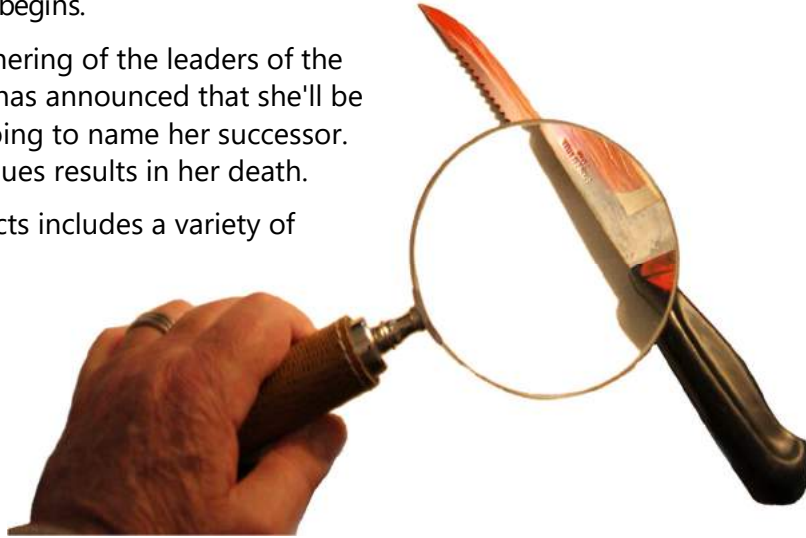

Whodunnit? It's up to you to question the suspects and discover the guilty party at a Murder Mystery Dinner at the East Regional Library on Friday, April 27 at 7pm.

Presented by THEY Improv and sponsored by the St. Charles School Foundation through a grant from the United Way, participants will enjoy a light dinner and then become part of the action as The Death of the Godmother murder mystery begins.

This scenario involves a gathering of the leaders of the local mob. The Godmother has announced that she'll be stepping down and she's going to name her successor. The power struggle that ensues results in her death.

The rogues gallery of suspects includes a variety of mobsters of different and interesting types, and community members will play the roles of the accused.

Space is limited, so registration is required.
