ON THE COVER

Teens are invited to our Projectpalooza events to get their science and social studies fair project boards ready.

Over 400 people trick-or-treated around the library at our 4th Annual Halloween Extravaganza. Thank you to everyone who attended and to the community organizations and businesses who helped make it such a success!

PROJECTPALOOZA

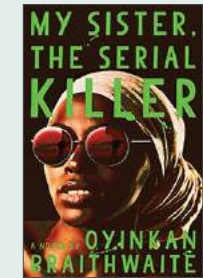

We are helping busy parents and students get ready for the science fair with ScienceFlix, an online science resource, and Projectpalooza, a series of events that will help students prepare their science and social studies projects.

- ScienceFlix is an online science resource that you and your family can use from home, from the library, from school, on the go...from anywhere you can connect to the internet at any time! All you need is your library card.
- ScienceFlix provides students with a better understanding of science concepts and ideas through hands-on experiments, videos, recommended websites, and more
- Projectpalooza is a series of events that will help students prepare their science and social studies fair boards. Students will be able to spread out, print, cut, glue, color, and decorate their project boards using the library's craft supplies. Project boards may be brought from home or purchased from the library for $2.
- Projectpalooza will be held at three locations. Students may come any time during the event and stay until they are finished or the event is over.
 - St. Rose Branch on Tuesday, November 27
3 pm - 6 pm
 - East Regional Library on Thursday, November 29
4 pm - 7 pm
 - West Regional Library on Tuesday, December 4
5:30 pm - 7:30 pm

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

FALL ACTIVITIES

The Friends of the St. Charles Library held a successful book sale on Friday, October 5.

We also had pop-up book sales at the Back to School Fairs, the STEM Fair, and the Halloween Extravaganza.

We enjoyed talking to everyone who stopped by!

Right: Two excited patrons stop by the Friends of the Library table at the STEM Fair.

TECHNOLOGY

SOCIAL STUDIES PROJECT? TRY TRUEFLIX

Trueflix is an online resource that focuses on engaging content in science and social studies for students in grades 3-6.

You and your family can use from home, from the library, from school, on the go...from anywhere you can connect to the internet at any time! It looks and works great on a computer, laptop, tablet, and smartphone. All you need is your St. Charles Parish Library card.

TrueFlix has a collection of introductory videos and other media, content designed for specific reading levels, and "clickable books," which allow students to feed their curiosity by jumping to the part of the book that they are most interested in.

There is information in eight subject areas: Disasters, Earth Science, Ecosystems, Experiments, Extreme Nature, The Human Body, Space, American Indians, Ancient Civilizations, the Civil War, Continents, U.S. Government, U.S. Regions, and Westward Expansion.

To find TrueFlix, visit www.myscpl.org, click Research, look for the Students K-12 link, and choose K-5.

EVENING SHOWS

Tuesdays and Thursdays
6:30 pm

Autumn Stargazing highlights the stars and constellations of fall.

You and your family will learn to find your way around the autumn night sky using the stars as your guide. You will also learn that there are more than just stars to observe in the evening sky.

For All Ages

CHILDREN'S MATINEE

Saturdays
10 am

The Little Star That Could will delight you and your children.

You will join "Little Star," a young, yellow star, as he travels through space in search of planets to call his own.

For Children

SATURDAY MATINEE

Saturdays
2 pm

ASTRONOMYTHS brings to life the ancient Greek and Roman stories behind the constellations of the autumn night sky.

You and your family will learn the names of the autumn constellations and see the wonders of the universe hidden in each.

For All Ages

Doors open 15 minutes before the scheduled showtime. Due to the unusual lighting conditions in the planetarium, no one is allowed to enter once the show has started. Please come early.
